

6516209215.txt

I believe the FCC should allow satellite radio access to local market coverage.
It's invaluable to be able to get traffic and weather for a city before entering the local coverage area.